

CHANDRA DREVJANY

SENIOR CLIENT PARTNER
ARLINGTON'S BOARD & EXECUTIVE TALENT MANAGEMENT PROGRAM

"Every leader has a story that needs to be told with clarity, confidence and conviction. My work is about helping clients translate professional experience into compelling written narratives that open doors — to boardrooms, executive roles, and new possibilities."

Chandra Drevjany is a Senior Client Partner, Executive and Board Advisory at Arlington Partners International. Drawing on a solid foundation in corporate human resources and over 20 years as a trusted career strategist and coach, Chandra collaborates with and supports senior executives in positioning themselves with clarity and purpose for their next chapters. Chandra leads Module 2 of Arlington's invitation-only Board and Senior Executive Talent Management program.

Chandra started her career in corporate HR, taking on progressive HR roles, partnering with senior leaders to support national initiatives including brand launches, HR integration during acquisitions, and national employee campaigns. In her work as a career strategist, she has coached and delivered workshops and webinars to individuals across North America at all levels in a multitude of professions on market positioning, brand development, networking, and interview mastery, consistently receiving high praise for her practical insights and engaging style. With a warm and insightful approach, she helps leaders articulate their impact and shape messaging to align with the strategic needs of today's boards and organizations.

Chandra holds a BA in Psychology from the University of Western Ontario and a Certificate in Adult Education from St. Francis Xavier University. She is also a Certified Coach Practitioner and MBTI Level II Certified.

Chandra is recognized for her strategic thinking, empathetic listening, and ability to translate sophisticated career journeys into powerful narratives — enabling Arlington clients to move forward with purpose and presence.
