

JACLYN BACHLI

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

“Great people want to know and work with other exceptional people. The power of Arlington Partners is our collaborative, high-touch partnership with clients and candidates and the caliber of our team. Arlington builds meaningful connections that ensure that outstanding leaders and organizations find each other.”

Jaclyn Bachli is the Chief Operating Officer of Arlington Partners International. She is a strong operations professional who thrives in high growth environments supporting growing businesses. At Arlington, Jaclyn is responsible for all administrative, operational and fiscal functions for the firm in all areas of Board, CEO and Senior Executive Search, Talent Management and Board Advisory services across private, public and non-profit sectors. She also supports key client and Arlington program initiatives and the development of ARLINGTON magazine.

Jaclyn has extensive experience working in client-focused environments in a variety of businesses including technology start-ups, large financial institutions and professional services firms where she has been the driving force in operational efficiency and setting a customer-centric tone.

Prior to joining Arlington, Jaclyn was Office Manager for Sensibill, a dynamic technology firm that is driving innovation in banking. Prior to that, Jaclyn was the Director of Operations at a boutique Toronto executive search firm, supporting Board, CEO, General Counsel and Senior Executive searches. She also has experience working as an operations professional at a shareholder services firm and one of the largest banks in North America.

Jaclyn earned her Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Guelph.
