

JUDI ENNS BRADETTE

MANAGING DIRECTOR

“In today’s rapidly changing environment, it is especially critical to find leaders that truly fit within the organization and are quickly able to add value and help it evolve. By developing a clear understanding of our clients, their culture and their strategic business needs, we find candidates who will thrive and create a lasting and transformational impact on the business – that is our goal.”

Judi Enns Bradette is a Managing Director at Arlington Partners International. Judi focuses on multiple sectors including leading Arlington’s Consumer Packaged Goods, Industrial Manufacturing & Distribution Practice as well as the US and Canadian Sports Practice. In addition, Judi contributes to Arlington’s Professional Services and Pharmaceutical/Life Sciences, practice areas. Judi also extensively advises boards on a range of governance, human capital and talent matters.

Over the last 20 years, Judi has built an exceptional reputation as an effective Executive Search Partner. Prior to joining Arlington Partners, Judi was a Partner at Enns Partners and Amrop Knightsbridge, and over the past two years, successfully managed her own executive search firm, Enns Bradette Search.

Working closely with clients across a broad range of functional areas, Judi has earned a reputation for providing outstanding service to both clients and candidates in Canada, the US and internationally. Judi has demonstrated an impressive ability to align key stakeholder interests to attract the right talent, creating lasting and positive impacts for her clients.

A graduate of McMaster University with an Honours Bachelor in Physical Education, Judi started her career as one of Canada’s top elite-level coaches in Artistic Swimming. As a strong believer in “giving back”, Judi is an active volunteer, as Past President of the Board of Directors for Canada Artistic Swimming.
